

Blue or medium grey background

Patient seat should be at least 18 inches from background on a swivel chair.

A chair that swivels allows the patient to be turned to the required angles rather than moving the photographer.

Lighting needs to be over the photographer's shoulders, slightly above the head and angled in toward subject.

Small umbrellas or small soft boxes over the lights help to soften the light on the patient.